55 000 years and counting:
celebrating our shared history

Bite Me gallery floor talk

Flinders University Art Museum, City Gallery, State Library of South Australia

Friday 29 May 2009

1:45pm to 2:45pm

Part of Reconciliation Week Dreaming Tent Program presented by Reconciliation SA

The Bite exhibition hosted by the Flinders University Art Museum features selected works on paper from Aboriginal artists focusing on printmaking, photography and digital imaging.

Bite Me is an opportunity to hear artists Brenda L Croft, Nici Cumpston and Darren Siwes and host Fiona Salmon talk about their works featured in the exhibition.
